Description of the activity:

This unique experience combines outdoors with the rich history and culture of the Geodestination Terras de Celanova - Serra do Xurés, passing through the Reserve of the Gerês Natural Park, Portuguese geography, more popularly known as "A Raia."

Following the ancient paths used by smugglers between Spain and Portugal, we will cross the border in a scenic way, winding through mountains and valleys, connecting with nature and horses.

The experience will include fascinating pauses at archaeological sites, allowing you to immerse yourself in history and nature throughout centuries. Depending on the time of year, we will pass by crystal-clear streams and small waterfalls, providing refreshing encounters for horses and riders, adding charm to the journey.

The journey will conclude upon returning to Lobios, leaving you with unforgettable memories of a horseback riding experience.
