Description:

There are places where time stands still. There are places where leisurely dining is a pleasure, and where conversation is part of the moment. There are places... that we would like to show you, connecting the beautiful Galician land with its neighbour Portugal, and in a small space between valleys and mountains, preserving traditions, flavours, and the skill of its inhabitants.

The Celanova-Xurés destination is a surprise for the traveller, with its Natural Park, the variety of its landscapes, and historical heritage. Also, for the significance of several of its monuments that are landmarks in Spanish art, such as the Mozarabic church of San Miguel de Celanova or the Visigothic church of Santa Comba de Bande.

Let us be your host, tell you and guide you at your own pace, without hassle, and with the necessary comfort so you don't worry about anything... just enjoy, experience, and discover with your eyes and heart the people of this beautiful corner of Galicia.

Some of our route proposals include:

Music, Stone, and Poetry / Tales of Yesteryear... / Arraianos We Are / The Vía Nova, uniting cultures / Veni, Vidi, Vici / Traces of Humanity / The Sacred Paths / Terra Petrea / A Walk to the Limit / Living Souls / À la Carte, (personalized / thematic / experiential).
